Rakesh: Please excuse my delayed response, Mondays are always incredibly busy and yesterday was as busy as it gets for me. I believe what your third party requires is a copy of the Optum-York MSA, as I've had other third parties require this in the past. See attached. Please confirm with your third party, and if they should need something else, I'm happy to help again. Thanks, Rakesh.

Scott: Thank you so much for your help! I appreciate it!

Subject: RE: UHG - Optum relationship document

Hi Rakesh,

As of now, I don't have any separate document per say... That said, the contract service agreement is stated at the top as - [United Healthcare Services, Inc on behalf of itself and its Affiliates ("UHS")] - In this statement, the affiliates in this case are UHC and Optum.

As stated on Unitedhealthgroup.com website:

"UnitedHealth Group serves clients and consumers through two distinct platforms: UnitedHealthcare provides health care coverage and benefits services. Optum provides information and technology-enabled health services."

UNITEDHEALTH GROUP®

ABOUT

UnitedHealth Group is a distinctively diversified health and well-being company helping people live healthier lives and helping make the health system work better for everyone.

We are committed to introducing innovative approaches, products and services to our communities. Our core capabilities in clinical expertise, advanced technology and a changing health care environment.

UnitedHealth Group serves clients and consumers through two distinct platforms:

UnitedHealthcare provides health care coverage and benefits services.

Thanks Scott, Lily,

Yes I will ask my employer if they require any letter, Employer had a Client letter from York .
May be we are talking about the same thing. However appreciate if you could send me those.

Thanks

Rakesh

Hi Rakesh,

I'm happy to help with this; you would probably need the Optum-York MSA. I'll email this over to you before end of day. Let me know if you need anything else. Thanks, Rakesh.
